

Photo by Jill Haynes

stonecutters worked around them.

"I'm feeling like an acrobatic grandma!" Webber said as she stepped from ladder to scaffold. Doug Rich and Susan MacVeigh worked from Webber's design, translating it from paper to the narrow walls at the heart of the Civic Center.

Later, their work was encased in glass that rises from the center of the building. The artwork is most visible from the staircase that encircles it.

A close look at the mural reveals references to Pittsburgh's sister cities, including the fuku, or blow-

Photo by Jill Haynes

Artist Helen Webber Works from her original design to paint the Civic Center Mural (Susan McVeigh top left.)

DID YOU KNOW...

There are four chairs, beautifully refurbished, that date from the time of Pittsburgh's incorporation. That's nearly 100 years! They're still in use today within the City Manager's offices at the Civic Center.

WET & WARM HOME CENTER

"Your Spa and Stove Store"

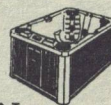

See Our New Expanded Showroom

Congratulations to the

City of Pittsburgh

on their new Civic Center

from Dave & Marie Durkin and Rosie

SALES • SERVICE • INSTALLATION

1201 Somersville Rd. • Antioch • 757-1311

We Cook With Pride!!

"The Mexican Food You Like"

*We use only pure corn
oil in our cooking
(except tomas)*

SAY 'NO' TO DRUGS
BURRITOS... YES!!!

324 Railroad Ave. • Pittsburgh • 432-7433 (closed Wednesdays)